HOW TO SELL A TRAMP.

A Hartford newspaper tells how a lady of that city "plays it" on trampe, through the agency of the spurious money genuine. The lady, with studied carelessness, puts a bill of this kind under the mat at the back door, and waits the approach of the innocents. Up to the it is transfered to his pocket, and without stopping to knock and beg, as he intended to, he hurries out of sight, radiant with the joy of one who unexpectedly
